WAIVER

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that as a member of WWOW, I will be participating in many water related activities, such as snorkeling, swimming, boating, kayaking, sailing, etc., and I understand that these activities can be strenuous at times. I choose to participate completely voluntarily and accept all responsibility for my health and wellbeing during these activities.

I further state that when I may be a guest of other members on their vessels, water equipment, or personal properties, that I waive and release any and all rights and claims for losses and damages that may result from my participation in these activities and hold harmless WWOW and any and all of the individual members involved with these activities.

SOCIAL MEDIA By signing this I am agreeing to allow photos taken of me at club events to be displayed on our club website and social media pages. I am responsible for not being in any group photos if I do not want my photo posted online.

All WWOW members are expected to act respectfully toward other members, guests, visitors, speakers, and those they come in contact with during WWOW events.
